I understand it's my responsibility to provide Muscle, Up Pup, LLC with the most current medical information, illness, medical history, previous injuries and behavioral issues.

_____ The dogs listed above have not bit anyone, nor shown aggressive behavior towards other dogs or people.

Your dog will be on the slat mill a maximum of 30 minutes. This machine is not electrically powered. It moves when the dog pulls it forward so it will go at your dog's pace. However, we cannot guarantee the health and safety of your pet if they have any underlying conditions.

Here at Muscle Up, Pup, LLC we will take the proper safety protocols to do our best to keep your dog safe. If at any point we feel we should not continue, we reserve the right to stop the activity. Some risks may include, but not limited to nail damage, back or leg injury.

_____ I understand there are inherent risks associated with using the slat mill for my dog, and I waive subrogation claims of insurers.

We cannot guarantee that your dog will take to the slat mill right away. It may take approximately 3 sessions before your dog is comfortable enough to use this machine properly, refunds will not be issued since training is still being provided to your dog.

_____ The dog(s) listed above are current on, and will stay up to date on Rabies, Bordetella, Distemper, Parvovirus, Leptospirosis and Canine Influenza and annual Heartworm & Fecal Testing.
